HKSTP's AI Unicorn SmartMore Claimed the Highest Honour at the Hong Kong ICT Awards 2025

Science Park Community Secures a Total of 31 Awards

(Hong Kong, 22 November 2025) – Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation (HKSTP) proudly announces that multiple partner companies and incubatees have achieved outstanding success in the Hong Kong ICT Awards 2025, organised by the Digital Policy Office, receiving 31 awards. Notably, SmartMore Corporation Limited (SmartMore), an AI unicorn within the HKSTP ecosystem, was awarded the “Award of the Year” and the “Smart Business Grand Award”, while HKSTP partner company iASPEC Services Limited, together with its ecosystem partners Ellen Li District Elderly Community Centre, Hong Kong Young Women's Christian Association, the Hong Kong Pharmaceutical Care Foundation Limited and North District Hospital, clinched the “Smart People Grand Award” and students Mr Chung Ho Chun from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, Mr Lee Pak Nin and Ms Chu Wing Sze Nicola from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, were honoured with the “Student Innovation Award”.

Mr Terry Wong, CEO of HKSTP, said, “The outstanding achievement of HKSTP's ecosystem partners and incubatees at this year's Hong Kong ICT Awards, clearly demonstrates the growing maturity of Hong Kong's I&T ecosystem and its robust capabilities in translating R&D into commercial success. This remarkable innovation momentum will drive us to further accelerate the development of Hong Kong's I&T industry, including expediting the construction of the San Tin Technopole INNOPOLE. Through our strategic “AI+” initiative, we will focus on advancing frontier sectors such as life and health technology, new materials, new energy, and microelectronics, collectively building new quality productive forces. We will continue to leverage Hong Kong's unique “One Country, Two Systems” advantage to attract top global enterprises and talent, fostering sustained economic growth and reinforcing Hong Kong's status as an international I&T hub.”

Hong Kong ICT Awards 2025: Award of the Year and Smart Business Grand Award

SmartMore Corporation Limited, an AI unicorn within the HKSTP ecosystem, being presented the Award of the Year from the Financial Secretary, Mr Paul Chan. After winning the Smart Business Grand Award and “Smart Business (Emerging Technologies) Gold Award” for their “Smore ViMo – AI Vision Model Development & Deployment Platform.”

Mr Daniel Shi, Director of ViMo Cloud said that the awards mark a significant milestone for the team. “Industrial AI is often perceived as difficult to adopt, but Hong Kong has shown that worldclass smart manufacturing technologies can be created and scaled from here. With the support of HKSTP and our ecosystem partners, we are committed to making AI truly accessible on the factory floor, so that manufacturers can turn data into real time decisions and build smarter, more resilient production lines.

This recognition encourages us to keep investing in the combination of large models and deep industrial knowhow, and to bring Hong Kong developed industrial AI solutions to manufacturers across the region and around the world.”

SMore ViMo is a large-model-driven, one-stop platform for machine vision and industrial AI. It equips manufacturers with production data lifecycle management, smart annotation, automatic deep learning model training, and rapid SDK inference capabilities. Proven across more than 1,000 industrial scenarios, ViMo’s modular, low-code design significantly lowers the barrier to AI adoption, empowering businesses of all sizes to automate quality inspection and optimize production lines with unprecedented ease.

Hong Kong ICT Awards 2025: Smart People Grand Award

HKSTP partner company iASPEC Services Limited, together with its ecosystem partners Ellen Li District Elderly Community Centre, Hong Kong Young Women's Christian Association / The Hong Kong Pharmaceutical Care Foundation Limited / North District Hospital, clinched the "Smart People Grand Award" and the "Smart People (Smart Ageing) Gold Award" for its innovative " Smart Hub: Telecare Project for Rural Villagers of North District".

Mr. Kenman Wong, General Manager of iASPEC Services said, “We are honored to have received this Award with our collaboration partners, including YWCA and Northern District Hospital in serving the elderly community in the rural areas. HKSTP has given us an excellent environment upon which we can continue to innovate new products and services to meet the needs of different industries.”

Our product Doctorgram, a comprehensive platform providing tele-consultation and healthcare management services has successfully penetrated markets in North America and the Philippines. We are now expanding into the Chinese Mainland and other ASEAN countries by enabling healthcare and elderly care service providers in improving the efficiency and quality of their operations.

Hong Kong ICT Awards 2025: Student Innovation Award

Students Mr Chung Ho Chun from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, together with Mr Lee Pak Nin and Ms Chu Wing Sze Nicola from the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology, has graduated from the HKSTP Ideation Programme and is now participating in the Incubation Programme. Mr Lee Pak Nin, Co-founder & CTO of ArtInSight, expressed that the team was truly surprised and honoured to receive these recognitions from the HKICT Awards. "It serves as a great motivation for us to continue striving for innovation in the often-overlooked field of arts education. We aim to create a more creative, diverse, and socially engaged arts ecosystem for Hong Kong, helping to shape the future direction of artistic talent and cultural industry development."

ArtInSight is the first AI-powered, one-stop art learning platform that integrates two major domains: "Art Appreciation" and "Art Creation." Through its ArtiLens artwork analysis module, users can simply photograph an artwork to unlock its historical context and techniques, engaging in deep interactive dialogue with AI. The ArtiGenX art reviewer offers a closed-loop learning system where users create artworks, receive real-time feedback from AI, and refine their pieces. Educators can monitor student progress and dynamically adjust their teaching methods, achieving bidirectional optimization of teaching and learning. Overall, ArtInSight transforms traditional art education into an intelligent, engaging, and accessible learning experience.

About Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation

Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation (HKSTP) was established in 2001 to create a thriving I&T ecosystem grooming 12 unicorns, more than 16,000 research professionals and over 2,400 technology companies from 27 countries and regions focused on developing healthtech, AI and robotics, fintech and smart city technologies, etc.

Our growing innovation ecosystem offers comprehensive support to attract and nurture talent, accelerate and commercialise innovation for technology ventures, with the I&T journey built around our key locations of Hong Kong Science Park in Pak Shek Kok, InnoCentre in Kowloon Tong and three modern InnoParks in Tai Po, Tseung Kwan O and Yuen Long realising a vision of new industrialisation for Hong Kong, where sectors including advanced manufacturing, micro-electronics and biotechnology are being reimagined.

Hong Kong Science Park Shenzhen Branch in Futian, Shenzhen plays positive roles in connecting the world and the mainland with our proximity, strengthening cross-border exchange to bring advantages in attracting global talent and allowing possibilities for the development of technology companies in seven key areas: Life and health technology, big data and AI, robotics, new materials, microelectronics, fintech and sustainability, with both dry and wet laboratories, co-working space, conference and exhibition facilities, and more.

Through our R&D infrastructure, startup support and enterprise services, commercialisation and investment expertise, partnership networks and talent traction, HKSTP continues contribute in establishing I&T as a pillar of growth for Hong Kong.
